The first Good Hart Market Days on Saturday has been years in the making.

The events run 2-5 p.m. Saturdays, June 27-Aug. 15 (no event July 4), on the property of the Good Hart General Store. The market days will feature farmers, producers, artists and artisans.

Good Hart General Store owner Carolyn Sutherland said she's had the idea in her pocket for several years, inspired by the Good Hart Mini Fair that started in the late 1970s and her childhood memories.

"I can remember as a kid, going to the farmers market in Royal Oak," she recalled.

At the market there was the produce expected, but also goods. Sutherland said as a kid, the variety was more interesting than just looking at broccoli.

The idea for the market days came to fruition this year at the suggestion of her daughter, Ami Woods, who decided it was time to make the dream real, Sutherland said.

She added that so far, the idea has caught people off guard, although they have been receptive.

"They're kind of shocked by it — 'You're doing what? What are you charging people? Are you taking a percentage of the sale?' No. We're just giving them an opportunity," Sutherland said.

or the sales? No, I'm just giving them my property," Sutneriano said.

Woods added that they want to create an outlet in the area for local talent.

"With all the traffic coming through on a Saturday afternoon, we wanted to be able to share it with the community," she noted.

The first market will feature music by Dr. Goodhart's Home Remedy, and some future markets also will feature music.

Vendors for the first event include Heritage Gold Michigan maple syrup of Charlevoix, Charlie Brown's Pumpkin Patch, Fusion Art of Petoskey, Thimbleberry Farm of Levering, Fish Camp Designs of Conyers, Ga., and Good Hart Farms of Good Hart. Items include chain saw art, wooden toys, handbags, quilts and jewelry.

A barbecue will be served in conjunction with the market, featuring chicken, baked beans, homemade potato salad, coleslaw, brownies and chocolate chip cookies.

T-shirts will be available, and $5 from every shirt purchased will go to the Readmond-Friendship-Cross Village fire and rescue team.

Good Hart General Store is located at 1075 N. Lake Shore Drive, Good Hart.
